Hiring Manager University

We've developed a series of courses that are delivered on-site and through webinars. Our on-site presentations are highly sought after for management meetings, team development off-sites, trade association keynotes and break-out sessions, and executive learning forums.

The courses listed in the course catalog below can be applied directly to your management team or customized for a particular group. If you would like to learn more about customizing one of our courses for your next management meeting or conference, feel free to contact us. One of our partners will follow up with you immediately.

Over the past 25 years, Barry Deutsch and Brad Remillard, the founding partners of IMPACT Hiring Solutions, have put more than 50,000 CEOs, senior executives, and managers through one of the programs listed below in our Hiring Manager Course Catalog. Thousands of companies around the world have dramatically improved their hiring and retention success through implementing the various steps of the Success Factor Methodology.

Hiring Manager Course Catalog

You're Not the Person I Hired

Our most popular on-site course that lead to the development of our award-winning book, You're NOT the Person I Hired
. Executives and managers in your organization will thank you profusely for allowing them to participate in this course. Many of our clients, executives and managers in every functional area, have told us that this one course has changed their lives and transformed their companies by enabling them to hire top talent at every level.

Read More...

Advanced Interviewing

Read More...

You're the Person I Want to Keep

Once you've hired that top talented employee, now you've got to work very hard to ensure you can keep them engaged, motivated, and passionate. This on-site program will give all your executives and managers the tools to keep their very best employees and raise the level of productivity for everyone else.

Read More...

Management Webinars

Read More...

Spotlight on Related Products for the Hiring Manager University