About Us

We are the ONLY hiring solutions firm that understands the complete hiring process and provides services to both companies and executive candidates.

We accomplish this by integrating retained executive search, hiring manager training, and hiring process improvement, job search coaching and training.

Feel free to explore the wide range of helpful ideas, FREE resources, valuable products, and insightful services.

Our clients consider us as a virtual help desk in hiring and retaining top talent based on 25 years of conducting 1,000 executive search assignments, training 50,000 executives and managers, and interviewing 100,000 candidates. The executive candidates who are engaged with us are frequently seeking our advice, either through our virtual support services, or one of our products or services tailored to a specific need.
