IMPACT Hiring Solutions Services Catalog for Candidates

We provide 4 key services for executive candidates that range from highly customized coaching to structuring an effective networking plan.

All of our candidate services are built around the implementation of the Career Success Methodology to reduce your time in transition and help you find your next great opportunity.

Our solutions are focused to both help you solve an urgent need in your job search, such as developing a more effective marketing tool than your current resume, and establishing an outstanding network that leads to an abundance of referrals.

Services to Solve Job Search and Career Problems and

Frustrations

Executive Hire Advantage

This service is a high-level intensive process of helping you to find and obtain your next great opportunity. It requires pre-qualification and we accept very few applicants for this deep coaching and personal guidance program.

Read More...

Executive Job Search Coaching

Imagine having your own private coach to help implement the steps of the Career Success Methodology.

What if you could reduce your job search time in half by having one of the top recruiters in the world as your personal coach?

We use a structured program to help you get on track with your job search and be more productive in getting referrals and obtaining interviews.

Read More...

Resume Review

The vast majority of resumes are worthless. Allow us to review your resume and recommend how to turn it into a Compelling Marketing Brochure that will get hiring managers to fall over themselves to invite you to the interview.

Read More...

Networking Strategy Development

Most networks for job searching are useless. We'll conduct a review of the strength of your network and provide specific strategies to quickly build a powerful network that continuously provides an abundance of job leads.

Read More...

Spotlight on Related Products for Candidate Services