The IMPACT Hiring Solutions Product Catalog for Hiring Managers

Our Hiring Products provide the tools to implement the Success Factor Methodology, ranging from our Desktop Hiring Guide to our award winning book, You're Not the Person I Hired, that has transformed hiring in thousands of companies around the world.

Your hiring executives and managers will thank you over and over for the tools listed below. For a small investment, you can gain access to the tools, training, and techniques for which larger companies invest thousands in live training and implementation.

These products provide a strong reinforcement for hiring improvement and learning once your hiring managers have participated in our live courses or webinars.
