The IMPACT Hiring Solutions Product Catalog for Hiring Managers

Our hiring products provide the tools to implement the Success Factor Methodology, ranging from our Desktop Hiring Guide to our award-winning book, You're Not the Person I Hired, which has transformed hiring in thousands of companies around the world.

Your hiring executives and managers will thank you again and again for the tools listed below. For a small investment, you can gain access to the tools, training, and techniques for which larger companies invest thousands in live training and implementation.

These products provide a strong reinforcement of hiring improvement and learning once your hiring managers have participated in our live courses or webinars.
